The YOUNG MEN'S REPRESENTATIVE ASSEMBLY.

Muz 23-1

Budget Session - June 1935.

Resolution No:

As the poojas are not being properly and with devotion conducted in all the Hindu temples belonging to the minority communities by the priests belonging to different communities and are ignorant of religious ^{laws} ~~laws~~ of the respective communities, temples in many places go to ruins and even the archaks become jealous and are subject to hardships and losses. This Assembly therefore recommends to the Government of His Highness the Maharaja that archaks belonging to the ~~same~~ same communities may hereafter be appointed to provide facilities in the matter of Sri Guru Thirtha, prasada, nevaaya, viniyoga, etc. and a special circular published in the Gazette directing the introduction of this system especially to every Sri Lalikamba temple ~~belonging~~ belonging solely to the rights of the Sri Visvakarma community.

Mover: Mr. S.V. Guruburthiacharya, Minorities.

A similar subject has proposed to be brought up for discussion at the last (October 1934) session of the R.A. and the notes prepared on it are put up below. That subject was not considered then.

It is for consideration whether paras 1, and 3 of the notes referred to may not be adopted for the present Resolution, and the same offered.

THE MYSORE REPRESENTATIVE ASSEMBLY.

DASARA SESSION- OCTOBER 1934. Mys 232-34-5

Representation by Mr. S.V. Gurumurthyacharya, Swamigalu-Sravanabelagola.

Subject No. 4:- Appointment of Pujaris of the same community in Hindu temples and mutts belonging to each community.

Summary of Representation.- If persons of a different community are appointed as pujaris in temples and mutts vested in a certain community, there will be recriminations and hatred which will be detrimental to the prosperity of these institutions and cause their decay. It is prayed that persons of the same community may be appointed to conduct worship in such institutions.

Secretariat Note.

Generally persons belonging to the same community are appointed to conduct worship in temples vested exclusively in a particular community. But in exceptional cases, persons belonging to communities other than that to which the temples belong have been, from time immemorial, conducting either daily or periodical utsavas. The following are instances in point:

Sri Narasimhaswamy at Hatyal, Tiptur Taluk.

Sri Jattangi Ramaswara-swami in Molakalmuru Taluk etc., even though Brahmanical institutions, are worshipped by Lingayat Pujaris.

Even though the deities at Mukatpore, Samagiri Hill, Yegati, etc., are worshipped by Lingayat Pujaris and Sri Venkateswara at Talakayalabetta by Satanas, the Brahmans have the right of worship on certain occasions.

2 The appointment of Pujaris in Mathas is left to the head of the institution, and where Government has taken the management of Mathas, the mamool is adhered to.

3 It is not possible to enforce a uniform practice in violation of the established custom and of the vested interests of persons rendering service in them.
